

College of Pharmacists of British Columbia

DRUG SCHEDULES REGULATION CHANGES – NOVEMBER 2023

The following amendments to the Schedules to the Drug Schedules Regulation made under the Pharmacy Operations and Drug Scheduling Act will come into force, on the date indicated below. The amendments may not yet be reflected on the Drug Schedules Regulation published by the British Columbia government on the BC Laws website (www.bclaws.com).

OLD ENTRY		NEW ENTRY		IN FORCE DATE
	None	1	Azelastine or its salts	November 20, 2023
	None	1	Bepotastine or its salts or derivatives	November 20, 2023
	None	1	Besifloxacin or its salts	November 20, 2023
	None	1	Efinaconazole	November 20, 2023
	None	1	Ozenoxacin or its salts	November 20, 2023
	None	1	Rupatadine or its salts	November 20, 2023
	None	1	Trifarotene or its salts	November 20, 2023
3	Loratidine and its salts and preparations in products marketed for pediatric use (under 12 years of age)	3	Loratidine and its salts and preparations in products labelled for use in children aged 2 to 11 years, in package sizes containing greater than 140 mg of loratadine	November 20, 2023